

Petition for the mind of Christ to be restored within me

<http://www.retahmcperson.com/>

Father, I come to You in the Name of Yeshua, covered by the Blood of the Lamb. Father, I bring before You my mind; the innermost part of me including my mind, my heart, my will, my inner man, the seat of my emotions and passions, the seat of my courage and memory. I bring all of these before You, into Your glory light. It is the desire of my mind to have the mind of Christ, with which You have blessed me, restored within me. Father I ask in the Name of Yeshua, for Your protection of all parts of me as I pray this. I ask that there will be no reprisal in the spirit of what I pray today, but that You will guard me. I place my faith and trust and hope in You.

Your Word clearly states that I should love the Lord my God with ALL my heart, ALL my soul, ALL my mind and with ALL my strength. Father, this is not true of the condition of my mind. I repent that parts of my mind are aligned to the kingdom of darkness. Please forgive me. I repent Father for the emotional resistance, born out of fear, which I experience when I think of surrendering my mind completely to You. I ask that You would remove all such emotional blockages with Your two edged sword. Please bypass these for my redemption by Your Spirit. I declare that this process is safe and that no booby traps or programming will be triggered because of this. I surrender my whole being to be covered by the Blood of the Lamb.

Father, I repent for myself and my seed, in all time, space and dimensions, for not valuing the great gift of Your mind in me. I want to repent Father that for generations we have traded Your mind for the mind of Satan and flesh. Father, I want to repent that I have conditioned my mind and have taught it to fear. I repent for every circumstance that has planted fear in my mind and has taught me to fear. I repent that my first instinct is to go into fear and not trusting and putting my faith in You. Father, as a result of this fear trades I no longer have a sound mind. But, as Your word states in Jeremiah 4:19 my mind is pained within me and makes a noise. Father, I come today, and want to apply the Blood of the Lamb over this noise over all that I have said in my mind that carries the fruit and seal of the kingdom of darkness. Father, I take full responsibility for the double condition of my mind. I repent that I have a spiritually confused mind which harbors and acts out of both darkness and light. I repent of this war in my mind and that I did not guard my mind above all things and did not value and protect this wellspring of life which You have blessed me with. As I pray I see in my mind's eye how You wash my mind and restore the soundness of Your mind within me.

Father, Your Word states in Proverbs 19:21 that there are many devices in man's mind. Father, I understand that these devices are like a machine in my mind generating fear, anger, rejection, bitterness, and many such evil fruits. Father, I repent that the greatest of these dark fruits is the distrust of You. Father, I understand that this machine in my mind are the dark imaginations and invented thoughts and pictures in which I, and parts of me, are trapped. Father, I ask that You would shut down this dark projector and other such devices within my mind. That You would remove the movies and images of shame, guilt and fear from my innermost parts. Father, I ask that You would flood the auditorium of my mind with so much light that I will no longer be able to see these images in my mind's eye. I surrender the senses and all memory banks before You where these images are imprinted and ask for the truth of Your light through the Blood of the Lamb to remove the programming and mindsets from the Kingdom of darkness. I surrender the dark room where these images are processed before You and ask that this too shall be flooded with light so that my life will be a testimony of truth and light. I declare that the truth shall set me free.

Father, I repent for myself and my seed walking for generations in the dark imaginations of our minds. Father, I repent that this has become our familiar path, that this is the way that we think, act and believe. Father, I ask today that You would guide me in all truth, so that my eyes will no longer be hooked onto these imaginations but that Your light will reveal the truth to me. I ask in the Name of Yeshua that these familiar paths of lies and deception will be blocked by Your blood and sealed so that I will no longer be able to enter these paths. Teach me Your paths and mind patterns O Father. I repent that I have a deceived mind and that I no longer can discern between lies and truth. I repent of the iniquity and sin and mischiefs that I have generated in my double mind. Father, I repent that I have not inclined my mind to your Word but have focused on evil things. I repent of my perverse and sick mind. I repent of every instance where I have fretted against Your will, thoughts and purposes in my mind. Father, I repent of the envy in my mind, where I have wanted what other sinners had, where I have coveted and lusted after money and other resources to make me strong. I repent of the 7 abominations in my mind as You mention in Proverbs 26:25. To my understanding these are the operations of the false spirit of the enemy and the false spirits of wisdom, understanding, counsel, might, knowledge and the fear of the Lord. I would like to trade these for Your true Life and sustenance in Me. Father, I repent of the whoredom of my mind.

Father, I repent of the pride of my mind, for the self-sufficiency and self-reliance. I repent Father for the idols in my mind. I repent that my mind goes after these idols instead of going after You. I repent that I have said in my mind that there is no God. Because of this my mind is a war zone – a fight between the kingdom of darkness and of light. Father, I repent for every instance where my seed and I have relied on our own minds. Your word states that this is foolishness, please forgive us. Father, I repent that my mind meditates on terror, that fear is the stronghold of my mind. Father, today I repent of the uncircumcised condition of my mind.

Father, I have sinned so often out of the belief system that I need to protect myself. Because of this Father, I have created strongholds within my mind of own strength. I repent of this rebelliousness of mind. Forgive me of this sin. Today I choose for these to be demolished so that I can be established in You as my strong tower and horn of strength. I willfully lay down all my own strength and fortresses so that I can be in You. Father, I repent of these dark imprints on the understanding and cell structure of my mind and all memory banks. I surrender all of my mind to You today. Father, I repent that the inward thoughts of iniquity are deeply rooted in my mind. I repent Father, that for generations we have hungered after and sought out knowledge in stead of life. I repent of this. I ask that as I pray today Father, that the roots of knowledge of own reliance, of own strength, protection and control generated from our eating of the Tree of Knowledge will be uprooted and chopped down so that the seeds of the Tree of Life can once again be planted in my mind – bearing fruit of Your kingdom.

Father, your Word states that we have not cried out to You from our minds. Today, I cry to You for redemption, salvation and healing of my mind. Father, no man can say that I have a mind free of sin, but today I surrender my mind in repentance at the cross to be cleansed by the Blood of the Lamb. I choose today to no longer operate out of my own strength but to start relying on You as my source of strength and power. I come today in obedience, humbly before You and come and trade all forms of darkness and lies in my mind for Your light and truth.

Father, I ask that You would come today and start binding the wounds in my heart, that You would remove the sorrows from my heart. I ask that You would come and revive and refresh my heart. I repent Father for every part of me who still resists this process in me. I repent of the familiar spirits, human spirits and demonic forces as well as past life personalities that resist Your redemption of my mind. In the Name of Yeshua I ask that You take these captive and remove them from the chambers of my mind. I ask that You would silence their instructions and words from my memory banks. I repent of all the vows and punishment structures that are in place that prevent me from receiving the fullness of Your mind in me. I ask that You would cover these by Your blood, rendering them no longer operational – so that You can start and complete Your good work within me. It is the desire of my heart to serve You with ALL my mind.

I thank You for the promise of Your Word in Ezekiel 11:19 And I will give them one mind and I will put a new spirit within you and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh and I will give them a heart of flesh. I thank You Father, for this divine trade that You are prepared to do for me.

Today, I come in the Name of Yeshua and bring my mind for redemption. I come before Your throne and plant the cross in my mind. I thank You that Your Word states that I will be transformed by the renewing of my mind. I come today with a willing and ready mind, humbled before You for the Word to be done in me. Today I come on behalf of myself and my seed in all time, space and dimension and trade the darkness in my mind, my carnal mind, through the blood of the Lamb for the mind of Christ. I bless my mind to be transformed once again into the image and likeness of YHVH.

Prophetically I come and surrender my mind, I bring it to the cross, to be washed, renewed and strengthened according to Your Word. I thank You that Your Word says that as a man thinks He is. Therefore today I choose to think and say and proclaim what Your Word says about my mind. I know that this is done by blessing my mind. So, in the Name of Yeshua, I bless my mind

- with Godly wisdom to be restored - to be directed by YHVH - to be comforted by His Love - to be set upon the High things of YHVH - to be touched and renewed by Him - with the healing of all wounds and removal of all pains and arrows - with the restoration of shalom where fear used to reign - with the understanding of mind according to His precepts - with the writing of His instructions on the table of my mind and for the wiping of all other dark instructions by the blood of the Lamb - to be perfected in and by Him - to be willing to seek Him first - to be lifted up in His ways - to become one with Him - with no fear no matter the circumstances

- to be fashioned after His will - to store up righteousness instead of iniquity - to be repentant - to be fixed and restored by Him - to remain steadfast to His covenants - to brim over with gladness and joy - to store up the Word and to stand in awe of it - to always be inclined on Him - to be fixed on Him, trusting Him in all - with new mind programming - to be planted on new Godly beliefs - to walk before Him in His divine pathways.

I receive these blessings and store them in the memory banks and cells of my mind. I believe that through these repeated blessings I will develop new pathways of power, love and a sound mind. I believe that perfect love casts out all fear. And therefore I surrender my broken mind to be flooded by His love. I thank You that Your love heals, restores, revives and make all things new. I thank You that my mind has the ability to be renewed and restored. I thank You that cell memory is now being rejuvenated. I thank You that all guards and dark forces are removed from my mind. I thank You that all strongholds are being broken down. I thank You that all double calling and double thinking are removed and that my mind is rooted on righteousness and justice. I thank You that the Tree of Life is now being planted in my mind. I thank You that as my spiritual eyes and senses are hooked onto You the very DNA of my mind is being changed by the Blood of the Lamb. I thank You that my mind will be a seat of Your love and governance. I thank You that Life will be the essence of my mind. I thank You that I will once again become a wellspring of life – bringing forth every good thing.

I seal all of this in the Name of Yeshua

Amen
